STAR - SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous fight,
 O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming
 And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there;
 O say, does the Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep,
 Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
 What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
 As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses,
 Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
 In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;
 'Tis the Star-Spangled Banner, O long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
 That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
 A home and a country should leave us no more?
 Their blood has washed out their foul foot-step's pollution
 No refuge could save the hireling and slave
 From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave.
 And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph doth wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

O thus be it e'er when freemen shall stand
 Between their loved homes and the war's desolation;
 Blest with victory and peace, may the Heav'en-rescued land
 Praise the Power that had made and preserved us a nation
 Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto, "In God is our Trust";
 And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

AMERICA

My country 'tis of thee,
 Sweet land of liberty,
 Of thee I sing;
 Land where our fathers died,
 Land of the pilgrim's pride.
 From every mountain side
 Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee,
 Land of the noble free,
 Thy name I love;
 I love thy rocks and rills,
 Thy woods and templed hills;
 My heart with rapture thrills
 Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze
 And ring from all the trees
 Sweet freedom's song;
 Let mortal tongues awake,
 Let all that breathe partake,
 Let rocks their silence break
 The sound prolong.

Our father's God to Thee,
 Author of Liberty,
 To Thee we sing;
 Long may our land be bright
 With freedom's holy light;
 Protect us by Thy might,
 Great God our King.
