Hess-Ulrich breaks ground for new building

Last Monday a ground-breaking ceremony was held at the 5-acre site of the new car dealership building of Hess-Ulrich. The building, across from National Standard on West Main St. near Mount Joy, will measure 70 by 192 feet when it is finished about four months from now.

Hess-Ulrich moved to Mount Joy from E-town in 1974. Hess joined the firm in 1973, 65 years after the original Ulrich founded it. Their old building is at New Haven and West Main in Mount Joy.
