

Head of Christ

In Memoriam

There is a world above,
 Where parting is unknown,
 A whole eternity of love,
 Forbid for the good alone,
 And faith beholds the dying here
 Translated to that happier sphere.

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil:

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Mary E. Zimmerman

Mary Zimmerman, was homemaker

Mary E. Zimmerman, 83, of 206 Mount Joy St., Mount Joy, died Saturday evening at home. She had been under a doctor's care.

She was the widow of Frank Zimmerman, who died in 1958.

Born in Mount Joy, she was the daughter of the late Charles Mateer Sr. and Ella Zink Mateer.

A homemaker, she had been a resident of Mount Joy most of her life. She lived in Lancaster for 10 years until her husband's death.

She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Mount Joy.

She is survived by three sons: Frank, Rawlinsville, and William and Charles, both of Mount Joy; two daughters, Peggy, wife of William Risbon, Mount Joy, and Irene, wife of P. Edward Becker, with whom she resided; 14 grandchildren; 22 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandson. She is also survived by one brother, Elwood Mateer, Mount Joy.
