

AUGUST 9, 1905

WEELY BULLETIN

Mt. Joy, Pa.

J. E. SCHROLL, Editor and Publisher

An Auto Accident ✕

Another accident occurred Sunday caused by an automobile frightening a horse. David Cooper and wife and Henry Smeltzer and lady friend drove to Landisville with one of Liveryman Wagner's teams. On their way home they met an auto. Their horse frightened and ran down over an embankment, upsetting the vehicle, breaking both wheels and throwing the occupants out, all of whom escaped injury. They were obliged to get another wagon to return home.
