

THE LANCASTER THAT WAS

50 years after posing for photo, they meet again

When Mount Joy High School's class of 1952 holds its 50th-year reunion Nov. 2-3, many of these smiling faces will be getting back together.

This picture comes from Georgianne McCue, who lives on South Delta Street in Mount Joy. She can be found in the first row, first pupil on the left. The school building served as junior high and was later torn down. The class of 1954 was the last class to graduate from this high school. House now sit on site. Pupils in Mount Joy are in the Don-egal School District.
